General Statement policies for SECU of MD, Inc.

- To report lost or stolen check cards, ATM cards or credit cards, call 1-800-879-7328, press 2 for Personal Accounts, press 5 for Card Options and follow the prompts.

- Balance Information. For accounts other than loans or lines of credit, the "ending"/"total" balance shown on this statement does not reflect any pending withdrawals or holds on deposited funds that may have been outstanding on your account when your transactions posted. The account's "available balance" is used to determine when the account may be overdrawn and when fees are assessed. The available balance includes deductions for holds on debit card purchases and holds on deposited funds and may have been lower than the ending/total balance shown on your statement. If you had an insufficient available balance when a transaction posted, fees may have been assessed. For more details about the different types of account balances and information on avoiding fees, please see our Agreements and Disclosures or call us at 1-800-879-7328.

- In case of errors or questions on your statement. Telephone us at 1-800-879-7328 or write us at SECU P.O. Box 2148, Glen Burnie, MD 21060 as soon as you can if you think your statement is wrong or if you need more information about a transaction listed on the statement. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we send the first statement on which the problem or error occurred.

- Your Insured Funds. SECU is federally insured through the National Credit Union Administration. (NCUA)

FACTS WHAT DOES SECU DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?	Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.
What?	The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include: ▪ Social Security number and account balances ▪ account transactions and credit scores ▪ income and payment history
How?	All financial companies need to share members' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their members' personal information; the reasons SECU chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Reasons we can share your personal information	Does SECU share?	Can you limit this sharing?
For our everyday business purposes – such as to process your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders and legal investigations, or to report to credit bureaus	Yes	No
For our marketing purposes – to offer our products and services to you	Yes	No
For joint marketing with other financial companies	Yes	Yes
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes – information about your transactions and experiences	Yes	No
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes – information about your creditworthiness	Yes	No
For our affiliates to market to you	Yes	Yes
For nonaffiliates to market to you	Yes	Yes

To limit our sharing	▪ Call 410-487-7328 or 800-879-7328 or ▪ Email us at: ask.secu@secumd.com Please note: If you are a new member, we can begin sharing your information 30 days from the date we sent this notice. When you are no longer our member, we continue to share your information as described in this notice. However, you can contact us at any time to limit our sharing.
Questions?	Call 410-487-7328 or 800-879-7328 or email us at ask.secu@secumd.com

What we do

How does SECU protect my personal information?	To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.
How does SECU collect my personal information?	We collect your personal information, for example, when you ▪ open an account or use your credit or debit card ▪ show your government-issued ID or apply for financing ▪ give us your contact information We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.
Why can't I limit all sharing?	Federal law gives you the right to limit only ▪ sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes – information about your creditworthiness ▪ affiliates from using your information to market to you ▪ sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you State law and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?	Each joint account holder's choice to limit sharing will apply only to themselves.
